

St
Martin in the Fields

HeartEdge

Commerce, Compassion, Culture, Congregation...

It's All Church!

12 & 13 September 2018

Commerce, Compassion, Culture, Congregation are essential – in our view it's all church! This September attend the HeartEdge two day intensive – theology, ideas, resources, plus time to make connections, find encouragements and Jazz!

Contributors include:

- Rt Revd Paul Bayes
- Ann Morisy
- Professor Ben Quash
- Revd Dr. Paul Goodliff
- Professor Anthony Reddie
- Russell Rook
- Baroness Sherlock
- Most Revd and Rt Hon Justin Welby
- Revd Dr Sam Wells
- Revd Lucy Winkett

Programme includes:

- Bread for the World
- For Good: The Church & the Future of Welfare
- Great Sacred Music
- Live Jazz

12 & 13 September 2018

Day 1 at

St Martin-in-the-Fields

Day 2 at

Lambeth Palace

Programme: Day 1 at St Martin-in-the-Fields begins from 10.00 am and includes an evening Eucharist followed by live Jazz. Day 2 at Lambeth Palace begins from 9.30 am, with conference close at 3.30 pm.

Cost: Early Bird rate £69 (until 20th July 2018); then HeartEdge members rate - £79 & non-members rate - £99. Tickets include conference programme, refreshments & lunch, plus complimentary Jazz on evening of 12th September.

Registration: Book tickets at <https://tickets.myiknowchurch.co.uk/gb/ODYyLTU/t>

For more information: Contact Revd Jonathan Evens on 020 7766 1127 or jonathan.evens@smitf.org

HeartEdge is a growing ecumenical network of churches and other organisations which supports churches in blending their mission around congregation, compassion, culture and commerce.

‘HeartEdge feels different, in that it is practical theology, where the theology is not just a veneer, but running right through it.’

Rev Andy Goodliff, Minister of Bell Vue Baptist Church, Southend