

Zoom Showcase Evening 7:30pm Saturday 11 July 2020 in support of The Greenwich & Bexley Community Hospice (Zoom ID 675-014-6024; Password 859013)

Programme/Running Order (all times are approximate)

7.30 - Welcome & Introduction

7.35 - Amber Satchwell sings 'Valerie' by Amy Winehouse & 'Life on Mars' by David Bowie.

7.45 - Colin Hills performs a monologue from Shakespeare's 'Othello'.

7.50 - Amy Clayton of 'Lady Grey & the Earls' sings her own original material.

8 pm - Nicole Booth performs Abigail's monologue from Act 2 of Arthur Miller's 'The Crucible'.

8.10 - The Carton Sisters (Leanne & Megan) sing 'Memories' by Maroon 5 & 'Older' by Birdy.

8.20 - Lara Bulford Welch & Everest Unger perform a scene from Oscar Wilde's 'The Importance of Being Earnest'.

8.30 - Emma Feeney sings 'Bring me Sunshine' with ukulele accompaniment.

8.35 - Justin Cartledge performs Ronnie Barker's comic sketches.

8.40 - Emily Young of 'Balletgirlz Bexley' dances to 'Someone Like You' by Adele & music from 'Chicago'.

8.45 - William Wells performs a monologue from Harold Pinter's 'The Birthday Party'.

8.50 - Gari Glaysher sings a choice of favourite operatic arias.

9 pm - Darren Matthews performs a comic monologue.

9.05 - Anecia Warner performs her own song 'Together We Can Learn to Breathe' with an extract from the 'Redemption Song', by Bob Marley.

9.10 - Bethan Grylls performs a monologue from 'Immaculate'.

9.15 - Holly Foster sings 'The White Cliffs of Dover' & 'When the Lights Go on Again'.

9.20 - Jack Day & Ian Welch perform a scene from Henrik Ibsen's 'John Gabriel Borkman'.

9.25 - Julian Agnew evokes life on the front line through readings from the diaries of a World War One Chaplain,

9.30 - Paul Keown performs the Chorus's rousing speech from Shakespeare's 'Henry V'.

9.35 - Imogen Roose sings a choice of favourite show songs.

9.45 - Megan Carton concludes the evening with a 'Lullaby'.

It's a wonderfully varied programme, and warmest thanks to all the performers for supporting this event with your time and talents and helping to raise funds for a fantastic cause.

Do join us for a fabulous free evening of entertainment, and please support the Greenwich & Bexley Community Hospice by donating here - <https://www.justgiving.com/fundraising/ian-welch11?newPage=True>